INSURANCE
COUNSELORS

What is CIC?

The Society of Certified Insurance Counselors (CIC) is a not-for-profit organization provides educational opportunities to help professionals succeed in the insurance industry. The five CIC institutes were developed as a dependable source of specific insurance knowledge for all industry professionals, with direct application to the organizational setting. The CIC Program works toward strengthening the connections between business goals, insurance expertise, and the human elements involved in getting the job done. Each institute includes two and one-half days of classroom instruction, followed by an optional examination. To receive additional information, please call (205) 326-4129.

Continuing Education

The CIC Institutes have been approved by the Alabama Insurance Department for 20 hours per institute. Those who have received and maintain the CIC designation are exempt from the continuing education requirement. The examination is not required to receive continuing education credit.

Topics

CIC Institutes are designed to take participants beyond a mere knowledge of the policies to an in-depth understanding of the risks and exposures involved. New topics are presented at each institute and we ask that you please take time to study the agenda and discover for yourself the benefits of CIC.

Faculty

CIC faculty members are nationally recognized and acclaimed. Our faculty members have received some of the best ratings received by CIC. Each faculty member is specifically selected for their ability to take seminar participants through the course material with an emphasis on practical use of the knowledge in their agency day-to-day operations.
